the FACET TABLEWARE

JANUARY 2024

Emerged from a thoughtful exploration of color dynamics, the Facet tableware set showcases the profound impact of both material and surface on color aesthetics. The distinctive striped pattern of the tableware set is a result of intentional design, where the edges and surfaces play a pivotal role in enhancing the visual effect. This deliberate interplay of elements creates a captivating aesthetic that goes beyond mere functionality, turning each piece into a unique and visually engaging addition to your dining experience.
