

FARADAY UP

Designed by Jonas Søndergaard

Faraday Up is a versatile lamp designed for both wall and ceiling mounting, combining functional lighting with sculptural presence.

Mounted on the wall, Faraday Up is ideal for gallery walls, hallways or living spaces, while ceiling placement creates elegant ambient lighting with a contemporary edge. The refined design balances form and function, making it equally suited to private interiors and hospitality settings.

With its minimalist expression and artistic impact, Faraday Up adds character and atmosphere to any room.
