

The TMM wall lamp is part of Miguel Milá's collection for TRAMO, the company he founded to produce his own work in post-war Spain. He was starting off in a profession that he would later go on to master. He was a pre-industrial designer seeking convenient solutions with the technology available. Milá's words, like his pieces, have an incredible depth that lies beneath their simplicity.

The TMM series wall lights consist of a simple beech or walnut wood channel with a parchment shade.

Miguel Milá offers a brilliant lesson of good taste and minimalism in an exquisite demonstration of formal serenity and functional efficiency.
