Argilla Lamp

Reinterpreting the form and function of a lantern, the Porti Braided Lamp is a versatile and portable lamp that can be used in a multitude of settings. Emitting a soft and warm light, the lamp features a braided rattan shade that rests on a slender metal frame, resulting in a charming mix of tactility and sleekness. The lamp base features a hover touch function that enables you to control the light intensity as well as turn the lamp on and off with just a gentle touch or tap, and adjustable feet that help you to align the lamp on uneven surfaces.
