

Ruuvi Lamp

Ruuvi Lamp

Inspired by industrial architecture and engineering, the practical and durable Ruuvi Lamp has a clean yet soft expression. Featuring practical thumb grip screws that have also inspired its name, the shade of the Ruuvi Lamp can be adjusted to provide light in any direction, while the clamp system allows the lamp itself to be attached to any surface in the home. Use the functional lamp to light up your beloved shelving system, for illuminating the pages of your favourite book while reading in bed, as a bright light when preparing delicious meals in the kitchen or in any other space where you need a practical light source that can easily be moved and adjusted.
